

Claims

- [c1] 1. A holder for securing articles on a dashboard, the holder becomes a handbag or shoulder bag after released from the dashboard, the holder comprising:
- (a) a case or cover or fixture or container for holding and securing and protecting the articles,
 - (b) belts or ropes or chains for connecting and fastening said case to three fixed points, two fixed points on windshield vents and one fixed point on center vents of the dashboard,
 - (c) two hooked devices for hooking on windshield vents, which are two of three said fixed points,
 - (d) a hooked device for hooking on center vents, which is the last one of three said fixed points.
- [c2] 2. The holder of claim 1 wherein said hooked device which is an article has a hooked portion for inserting into a gap of said vents and hooking on an edge or bridge in said vents.
- [c3] 3. A method for fastening articles on a dashboard, comprising:
- (a) providing a holder for holding the articles,
 - (b) providing two devices securing on windshield vents and one device securing on center vents to form three fixed points on the dashboard,

(c) providing a firm link between said holder and three said devices for fastening said holder on the dashboard.